THIS BOOK was written by Paul from a house prison in Rome. He planted the church in Ephesus (Turkey) and wanted to remind them of his many teachings. Paul was a Jewish believer in the Messiah, Jesus Christ, Son of God Almighty. He wanted to remind other Jewish believers to continue to live in the new way of trust in Jesus and in the power of God's Holy Spirit. Jews and non-Jews from other nations were now one family of God. They should all give up their old ways of living and live, work and worship in unity, avoiding conflict. They must therefore learn to trust and serve each other. He reminded this New Testament church to remain strong against evil things that might come back to test them. Paul's teaching is also important for all Christians today.

MANNA PUBLICATIONS supply Bible teaching commentaries written by Fred Morris. For many years Fred, and his wife Lorna, travelled round the world teaching and preaching. When they returned home they wrote these notes for printing wherever there was a need for basic Christian teaching.

MANNA BIBLE TEACHING COMMENTARIES are easy to read, easy to understand and easy to translate into other languages. They give foundational teaching for all readers plus additional notes for further Bible study.

THESE BOOKS are to use on your own or to talk about in a group. They will teach you God's truth. They will help you to know God's Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. They will help you to talk and pray about your faith in Him. They will guide you from going the wrong way in life. They tell you how you can live a new life pleasing to God.

WE PRAY that the Holy Spirit will give you a new peace and purpose in life as you read the Bible and use these commentaries.
