PAUL WROTE to the Galatian church with Holy Spirit guidance, concern and love: to teach the truth of God from the Scriptures; to preach salvation through Christ alone; to reach those who are open to the Holy Spirit. He loved the fellowships of believers and knew them personally. Paul wanted them to reject false teachers. He wanted to protect new believers from straying away from God's everlasting salvation in Christ. He knew that salvation could not be found just by following laws and traditions. Paul also knew that the church was at risk of following unbiblical laws and new ideas of some of the believers. His letter is a warning to us all that it is easy to go down the wrong path. Paul also warns us that being "free in Christ" through His costly sacrifice does not mean we are then free to do as we like. We must be prepared to listen to God's Bible truth for the wisdom of His Holy Spirit and not be enslaved by false teachings.
