THIS BOOK teaches about the work of God in the life of two great men of faith, Isaac and Jacob. They were the son and grandson of Abraham. All three were used by God to begin the nation of Israel and to prepare the way for their coming Messiah, Jesus Christ. Isaac himself was a type of Christ but Jacob was a cheat until God changed him to a great man of faith. God prepared a way through them for us all to become spiritual children of Abraham through faith in Israel's Messiah. We also read about the tribes of Ishmael who persecuted the children of Israel and later all who believe Israel's Messiah is the one true Son of God Almighty.
